2. The President will be out of town (Post clipping attached) for the last two weeks of August. You will be gone the first week of September and the President will probably be tied up with the Begin-Sadat meeting at Camp David anyway. I will revise our briefing schedule to cope with this.

Carter to Raft
On Idaho River

President Carter will spend three days of his upcoming vacation rafting and camping along the Salmon River in Idaho, the White House announced yesterday.

His wife, Rosalynn, his daughter Amy and Interior Secretary Cecil D. Andrus will join the president on the raft trip. Spokesman Jody Powell indicated he was unsure how the many Secret Service agents, presidential aides and press—who normally accompany the president—would be accommodated as Carter moves down the river. "Going down the river," Powell said, "is something he's always wanted to do."

The president will travel from Idaho to Grand Teton National Park in Wyoming on Aug. 24 and remain there until the first or second of September.

Before going to Idaho, the Carters will spend Aug. 18-21 in their hometown of Plains, Ga.
